1 small onion, thinly sliced
½ cup tomato, grated
1 tsp red chili powder
½ tsp garam masala
½ tsp salt
¼ cup heavy cream

2 cups elbow macaroni
¼ cup butter
1 Tbsp flour
1 ½ cups milk
2 cups shredded Cheddar
cheese, divided

(Photo Credit: tasty.co)

Directions:

Marinade:

1. To make the marinade, combine yogurt, lime juice, garam masala, paprika, cumin and salt in a medium bowl. Add in chicken and stir to coat. Cover with plastic wrap and refrigerate for at least 1 hour, up to 24 hours.

Butter Chicken Sauce:

1. Heat oil in a large skillet over medium-high. Add in ginger, garlic and onion. Stir while cooking until mixture is golden brown and fragrant, about 2 minutes.
2. Add in chicken with marinade and cook until chicken is white and almost cooked through, about 4 minutes.
3. Add in tomato, chilli powder, salt, and garam masala and stir to combine. Reduce heat to medium and continue to cook until chicken is cooked through and sauce begins to bind to chicken, about 8 minutes.
4. Stir in cream and cook until sauce has thickened, about 2 minutes. Remove from heat and set aside.

Mac and Cheese:

1. Bring medium pot of salted water to boil. Cook pasta according to package instructions for al dente. Drain.
2. Preheat oven to 450°F.
3. Heat butter in a medium saucepan until melted. Add flour and stir until mixture becomes pasty. Cook paste for 1 minute then whisk in milk and lower heat to simmer. Continue to cook until mixture is thick enough to coat the back of a spoon, about 5 minutes.
4. Whisk in 1 cup of cheddar cheese and stir until cheese has melted and the sauce is uniform.
5. Add pasta into the sauce and stir to coat. Transfer to a medium-size casserole. Arrange butter chicken sauce over pasta. Place remaining cheese on top of butter chicken sauce.
6. Place in preheated oven until cheese is melted and golden brown, about 10 minutes.

Shole Zard (Saffron Rice Pudding)

Contributed by Mahsa

Ingredients:

Rice: 1 cup

Sugar: 1 cup

Brewed Saffron: $\frac{1}{4}$ cup

Rosewater: $\frac{1}{4}$ cup

Butter: 25 g

Cinnamon and silvered
pistachio for design

Direction for brewing Saffron in Persian style cooking:

Add $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp ground saffron to $\frac{1}{4}$ cups of boiled water. Drop a small piece of ice into the water and put the lid on. Leave it in room temperature or a warmer place near the stove until the saffron is fully brewed, and the color is turned into sharp red.

Directions for the pudding:

1. Wash the rice and pour it into a pot and add 8 cups of water. Set them aside for 4 hours.
2. Put the pot on medium heat with the lid off. When the water boiled and got to the same level of the rice, add the brewed saffron, and let them simmer for five more minutes.
3. In all stages, Stir the pudding from time to time to make sure every ingredient gets mixed well. Next, add the sugar and after 10 minutes, add the butter and stir until the butter melts completely.
4. In the last step, add the rosewater and slivered almonds. Decrease the heat level to the lowest. Put a clean dried towel on the pot, and put the lid on.
5. After 15 minutes, remove the pudding of the heat and just let it stay with the lid on for few minutes(5-10 minutes)

“If you prefer a more watery pudding, you can take it off the heat earlier, and if you would like it thicker in texture, you can add some rice flour and let it on the heat for a bit longer.”

“You can design the pudding with cinnamon and slivered pistachio and almonds. This pudding can be served both chilled and hot. Enjoy!”

--- Mahsa

Pão de Queijo

Contributed by Vanessa

Ingredients:

400 g extra old cheddar cheese, shredded

200 g Feta cheese, shredded (you may substitute for mozzarella cheese but you'll need to adjust the salt)

425 g Tapioca flour/starch

360 ml whole milk

40 ml vegetable oil

2 whole eggs, slightly beaten

*The listed ingredients yield above fifty
1 tablespoon-sized cheese balls.*

Two brands Vanessa recommends:
Yupik and Bob's Red Mill Tapioca Flour/Starch
(Photo Credit: amazon.ca)

Directions

1. Preheat oven to 400°F.
2. Line a baking sheet with parchment paper. Set aside.
3. Drop the tapioca flour/starch into a medium-large bowl. Set aside.
4. Over medium heat, boil the milk and vegetable oil in a saucepan.
5. Pour the boiling milk-vegetable oil mixture into the tapioca flour/starch.
6. Stir until a dough is formed. You may use a mixer at this point. It helps a lot. But just beat until all is combined (2-3 minutes tops).
7. Drop the beaten eggs. Stir until all is combined. Add another egg if you feel that the dough is dry. Again, you may use a mixer at this point. But just beat until all is combined (2-3 minutes tops, otherwise the dough will become sticky).
8. Drop the cheeses and knead the dough until the cheeses are incorporated. Do not use a mixer here.
9. Shape balls and place them half-inch apart on the lined baking sheet.
10. Bake for 20 minutes on the top rack in the oven. Or until the cheese balls are golden. Serve warm

“This recipe freezes well. Instead of baking the cheese balls, place the baking sheet in the freezer for 2 hours. Then, place the cheese balls into a ziplock bag. Add 5 minutes when baking the frozen balls.”
